

Madame Milne, of New York

To Remain Another Week, by Urgent Request

The Palais Royal policy is to give its patrons the best possible service. It pays. Last week the store visitors had the benefit of the advice of perhaps the most famous corsetiere of today in the United States. We do know that in a few days more delighted visitors have learned of the corsets they should wear than usual here in a month. Many were extremely anxious to send their friends and, by urgent request, Madame Milne will remain here another week—this week.

The Franco-American "Bon Ton" Is Recommended

The "Bon Ton" and the Famous "Fasso" Are Alone Fitted With Elastic Gores

It will be interesting to compare the "Bon Ton" at $8.00, $10.00, and $12.00, with the "Fasso" at $28.50. Both are here and will be demonstrated by Madame Milne. Of all corsets only the "Fasso" and "Bon Ton" are fitted with elastic gores.

Note that the "gore" is really a part of the corset skirt (which is unbonded), and "gives" slightly to pressure, and then retracts to its original shape, thus enabling the wearing of extremely long models with ease, comfort, and grace, whether sitting, bending, or walking. Allow Mme. Milne to demonstrate these facts to your complete satisfaction. While the expert is willing to prove that the "Bon Ton" at $8.00, $10.00, and $12.00 are really rivals of French corsets costing twice the prices, she will be none the less willing and anxious to "demonstrate" the lesser priced, a few of which are illustrated and described below:

The Values are From $20 and Up to $40

The chief of this department returned yesterday from New York—and reports the final and best bargains of the year of 1910. She says: "I know that I'll soon have to give up much space in my department for Christmas Aprons and such things and, determined upon a last grand sale, induced the boss to let me go to New York." "That I have succeeded in collecting the best bargains of the year no one will dispute."

From several of New York's leading makers of man-tailored suits and dresses come sample garments, some being their imported models, not one of which is worth less than $40.00.

Bunched into three grand lots, at $8.98, $12.98, and $18.98, for choice are over one hundred different styles of cloth suits, long cloth coats, cloth and veiled silk dresses, the values of which range from $20.00 to $40.00.

SILK WAISTS AT $4.98

Better than ever at the price—so because of the maker's surplus lots picked up in New York. Come early tomorrow and secure $10 waists for $4.98. Choice of messaline and taffeta silks, draped in chiffon and net, in black, plain colors, superb Persian colorings and plaids. Made up in plain tailored and fanciful styles. The chief of this department says: "I was in Gimbel's new New York store and all the leading retail houses on Friday—with an eye to waists—and know that the Washington Palais Royal can justly claim those to be offered tomorrow as the best values of all."

Skirts With Perfect Lines, $3.98

Man-tailored skirts of panama, serge, and suitings, shrunk before making, cut, sewed, and pressed by men tailors. They are less like the cheap store skirts than the exclusive stores' $7.50 garments. Fashionable but sane models, the latest moment. The actual values are $6.00 to $10.00, at only $3.98 for choice.

FUR SETS, $9.98 to $50.00

At $9.98 instead of $12.50 are the Rich Black Russian Sets, comprising new shaped scarf and pillow muff. At $12.98 are the usual $18.00, and at $25.00 are the best of $35.00 black wolf sets, some with plain, some with shawl collar trimmed with heads and tails; each with large pillow muff. At $50.00 are superb specimens of black fox sets, with collar and large rug muff, ornamented with head and tails, good value at $75.00.

$50 to $100 Coats at $39.98 to $89.50

If they were bargain coats, from dealers in bargain furs, they would be dear at considerably less prices. Guaranteed by the famous furriers to us, and by us to you, they are bargains in the true meaning of the word. At $39.98 are best of $50.00 Pony Coats; at $45.00 are best of $68.00 Caracul Coats; at $89.50 are best of $100.00 near-seal coats. All are 50 inches long.

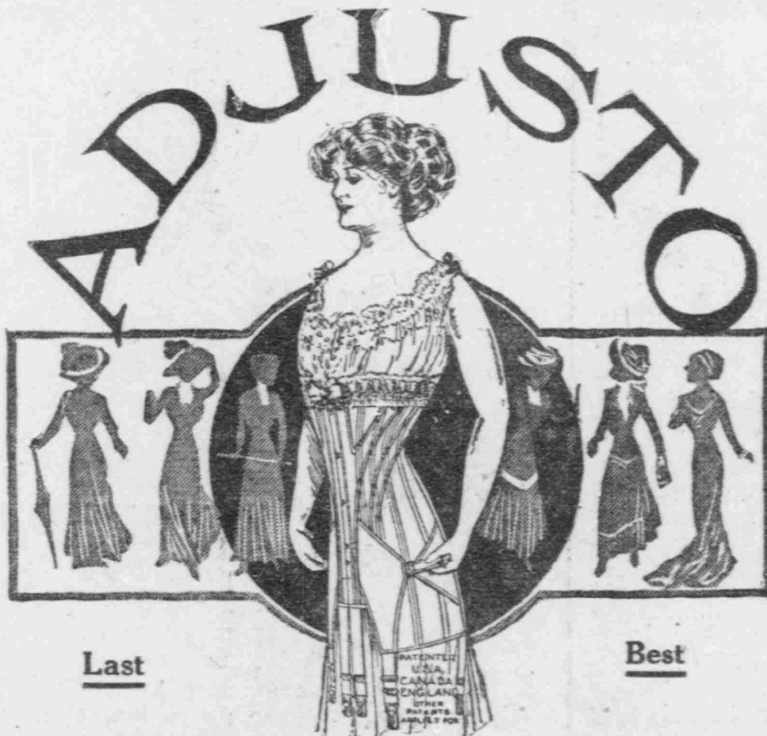

Style 600. This model is offered with sound advice to women obliged to think first of their purses. Save on other garments, but buy a good, sensible corset. Buy style 600, Royal Worcester Corsets. Price, $3.00.

Style 574, for those of average build. Has medium high bust, very long hips, and cutaway front. Very long back extending below ends of boning several inches. Nonrustable boning. 6 supporters. White batiste. Sizes 18 to 20. Price, $2.00.

Style 922 should interest those willing to pay $5.00—and not averse to saving $2.00. The very long but flexible hips and cutaway front are made to link comfort with grace. Ideal for the average figure. Price, $3.00.

Inestimable value, not only as a reducing corset, but as a perfect abdominal support. Then, too, with the aid of the Improved Reducing Bands and Supporter Loops, the corset skirt is held down smooth and flat, uniformly reducing hips and upper limbs. Let Mme. Milne demonstrate these facts. Note that the bands may be drawn up a little each time, so that the excess flesh will gradually disappear and the figure will assume perfect proportions. ADJUSTO Corsets are made from coutil or batiste, high or low bust, and guaranteed non-rustable. Price, $3.00.

Style 401 is, perhaps, the best possible model of a corset retailed at $1.00, especially if the wearer objects to heavy corsets. Comfort linked with grace is only too rarely attained in corsets at $1.00. Ask for style 401. Price, $1.00.

Style 504 is a new pattern fully in accord with present fashion. Has medium bust, very long front and hips. The back is very long, and extends several inches below ends of boning. White batiste. Non-rustable boning. Sizes 18 to 20. Price, $1.50.

Style 965. The illustration portrays a stylish new pattern, having medium high bust, long front, hips, and back. Six hose supporters. This corset is illustrative of "Bon Ton," the Parisian name for beautiful form. Price, $5.00.
